

The following details describe what will happen to your benefits upon leaving the University.

Active medical, dental and vision coverage for you and your dependents ends on the last day of the month in which your employment ends. For example, if your retirement date is October 10, your health insurance ends on October 31. Please note that if you retire on the last day of the month, benefits will end that same day.

3639 Laclede Avenue.

You retain full access to the tuition remission benefits for yourself and your dependent children. Please contact Student Financial Services for any questions surrounding tuition remission at 314 977 2350 or

If you participated in the 457(b) Deferred Compensation plan, you will need to make an election within 60 days of your retirement regarding distribution of your 457(b) funds. For any questions surrounding this election, contact TIAA at 1 800 842 2252.

Life insurance coverage ends on the date your employment ends with Saint Louis University. Your New York Life (formerly Cigna) life insurance may be convertible. For information on converting your New York Life (formerly Cigna) Group Term Life Insurance po
